At the workshops, you can learn about the history of Solana Pag, the method of salt production, then and now, and about the composition, quality and importance of salt. During the workshops, a tour of the pools, accompanying locks and canals is offered with competent guidance.

You can compare different salts and feel and taste salt and salt flower.

The collection (harvesting) of coarse salt in the classic traditional way is also offered. You will gain new knowledge and experience about salt, the ecological network of which Solana Pag is a part, and enjoy the beauty and unique nature.

The educational workshop lasts about 1 hour and educational workshop with collecting salt about 1,5 hours.

Appointments are in the morning from 7 am.

Prior online registration via the link is required:

or via QR code:

There are two educational workshops on offer. One workshop would be with a story, a walk to the pools, showing salt (fine, coarse and salt flower), where guests can try and feel the difference. Second workshop offers all that with addition of harvesting of salt with assistance of an experienced employee of Solana Pag.
